At explora we propose a new way of traveling to remote areas in South America, based on in-depth exploration of the surroundings and luxury of the essential

The definition of isolation

Rapa Nui has been the cradle of a unique and enigmatic culture that continues to endure today.

Located 8 km from Hanga Roa, explora Rapa Nui is located in a privileged location from which to explore the island.

Programs

Our programs have a minimum stay of 3 nights, available year round at explora Rapa Nui (trip duration subject to flight availability throughout the year). In order to ensure generous time to enjoy this unforgettable experience, explora suggests a longer stay. During Christmas and New Year there are fixed programs of 4 nights.

Explorations

At explora Rapa Nui we offer 18 explorations at different levels, by sea, by bike or on foot. In general, all have strong cultural and archaeological overtones, and are led by an expert bilingual local guide.

All of our guides speak fluent Spanish and English, are very knowledgeable of their surroundings. They also have Wilderness First Responder (WFR) certification, allowing them to provide expert aid to people in remote locations.

Every evening in the hotel bar, our guides meet up with guests to program the next day's activities. Our explorations are carried out in groups of no more than 8 people.

As we believe in healthy exposure to nature, we also believe in healthy exposure to other travelers, hence we do not offer private explorations. Our guests are sociable people with stories to tell and adventures to share; we are convinced that the people you meet during the journey are as important as the destination itself.

Between the volcanoes and the Moai, the best way to appreciate the scale of the island around us and the vastness of the Pacific Ocean, is on foot. We always strive to adjust to the rhythm of each traveler, enjoying every step of the journey.

Some places we visit in Rapa Nui: the different moai platforms, Hanga Roa, the volcanic cones of Pui Rano Raraku, Anakena beach, among others.

For more information about our explorations, please request our complete explorations program.

**explora* reserves the right to alter, change or eliminate parts or the totality of the exploration programs without prior notice, when advisable for the well-being and safety of our guests.

Climate

What to bring

Explorations require clothing suitable for active pursuits outside. Warmer clothing may be needed for cooler evening temperatures. We recommend bringing all that’s necessary for protection from the sun. For inside the lodge, bring light, informal clothing. explora considers elegance an interior virtue.

For more information about what to bring, please request our recommended clothing document.
